

Do you have a legal issue relating to taxes, public benefits, or kinship care?

Visit the Ohio Justice Bus for our Highland County Clinic. Residents can visit the bus to speak with Legal Aid Society of Greater Cincinnati advocates about the following:

- Understanding taxes and the Advance Child Tax Credit
- Tax Disputes with the IRS
- Stimulus Payments
- Claiming new dependents
- Kinship care (caring for a child who is not your own) benefits and family law issues

Hillsboro Clinic
Friday, July 23
9 a.m.-4:30 p.m.
Highland County Community
Action Agency
1487 N High Street, Hillsboro,
Ohio 45133
(937) 393-3458

Greenfield Clinic
Friday, August 6
9 a.m.-4:30 p.m.
Highland County Community
Action Agency
1300 Jefferson Street,
Greenfield, Ohio 45123
(937) 981-2953

To speak with an attorney on the Ohio Justice Bus, call the Legal Aid line at (513) 241-9400 before either clinic. If you do not make an appointment in advance, you may still come to the bus to tell us what kind of help you need. We may be able to help with other legal issues such as housing and education, as well as connect you with an attorney at a later date.